

EAST AFRICA

AIRPORT OPERATIONS CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

April 25-30, 2010 • Entebbe, Uganda

The United States Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), in cooperation with the Safe Skies for Africa program, presents the East Africa Airport Certification Program to be held April 25-30, 2010, in Entebbe, Uganda. The certification program is a comprehensive international course based on International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Annex 14 regulations, including classroom and on-airport working sessions.

Program topics will include:

- ICAO Annex 14 Aerodrome Design and Operations
- ICAO Annex 14 Standards
- Airport Certification and Inspection, Safety Management Systems
- Airfield Marking and Lighting
- Wildlife Management
- Runway Safety Action Teams
- Aircraft Rescue and Firefighting

Target audience: Eastern and Southern Africa

- Aerodrome Inspectors from CAAs
- Airport Operating Companies

SAFE SKIES
for AFRICA

SAVE THE DATE

Additional program and registration information coming soon!

The program will be managed by the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE)/International Association of Airport Executives (IAAE).