

Introduction into Air Law

Zambia Air Services Training Institute, Lusaka, May 14, 2010

Only 20 places available - early registration essential

Improve your knowledge of international air law to better serve your organisation or clients

How you will benefit:

- Obtain an overview of legal regimes applicable to aviation industry
- Learn how international air law regimes are interpreted and applied
- Analyse legal implications for your organization or clients
- Understand how airlines & governments handle problematic air law issues

Course subjects include:

- Public air law
- Private air law
- Safety & security
- Economic regulation
- Liability
- Passenger protection

Intended participants include:

- Airline managers
- Chief pilots and pilots
- Airport managers
- Safety officers
- Lawyers
- Regulatory staff
- ATC management
- ATC staff
- Air force staff
- Law students

Course fee K499.000 for a full day, incl. refreshments and course reader

Further information contact Tom Kok at tom.kok@aviassist.org

Register and pay before 14th of April to secure a place - with ZASTI at 0977 785.455 - Vice Principal Kandingwa zasti@iconnect.zm, kandingwap@yahoo.co.uk

The AviAssist Foundation is the regional affiliate of the